REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

4. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 8/15/2005 has been entered.

5. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance.

The instant invention generally relates to a method of analyzing a data set of an object to be examined.

6. Based on applicant's fax inquiry, filed 10/28/2005, see page 1 through page 10, of the remarks, with respect claims 1 and 3-20 have been fully considered and are persuasive and upon further consideration the 102(e) and 103(a) art rejection of claim 1 and 3-20, has been withdrawn.

7. Claims 1 and 3-20 now renumbered as 1-19 are allowed.

Based on applicant's remarks, claim 1 representing claim 16, the closest prior art of record (Cheng and Aylward) references do not disclose or suggest, among other things, assigning a data value to each voxel of the first type, data value representing a measure of the distance between said voxel and the nearest boundary voxel, and classifying the voxels of the first type that have a distance data value exceeding a predetermined threshold as aberration, voxels indicative of an aberration in the object and determining which of the aberration voxel are boundary aberration voxels adjoining non-aberration voxels of the first type, and adding a number of voxels of the first type that from a shell of a certain thickness to the aberration voxels.

These key features in combination with the other features of the claimed invention are neither taught nor suggested by the art of record.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
